Sociology 2008
Senior Thesis Writers

Stephen Amrock
Advisor: Jason Beckfield
First Reader: Mary Ruggie

Abstract

This thesis examines the effects of globalization on policy and institutional mechanisms. In particular, it focuses on the relationship between states and transnational organizations in the context of international cooperation. The study aims to explore how these mechanisms influence the implementation of policies and their effectiveness.

Sachiko Amy Ezura
Advisor: Jason Kaufman
First Reader: Timothy Nelson

Abstract

This paper examines the impact of globalization on the role of states in international relations. It investigates how states adapt their policies to accommodate the challenges posed by globalization and the implications of these adaptations on their domestic and international policies.

Caroline Hostetter
Advisor: Christopher Winship
First Reader: Anthony Braga

Abstract

This project explores the relationship between globalization and criminal justice. It examines how globalization influences the enforcement of criminal justice systems and the implications of these changes on crime and law enforcement.

Eric Koushalas
Advisor: Mary Brinton
First Reader: Michael Kramer

Abstract

This paper examines the role of globalization in the context of international trade. It investigates how globalization affects the distribution of wealth and the implications of these changes on economic policies and global competitiveness.

Eliza Kutz
Advisor: Mary Brinton
First Reader: Susan Miller

Abstract

This thesis focuses on the role of globalization in the context of international trade. It examines how globalization influences the distribution of wealth and the implications of these changes on economic policies and global competitiveness.

Olivia Levine
Advisor: Stephanie A. Howling
First Reader: Donald Rubin

Abstract

This thesis explores the impact of globalization on education. It investigates how globalization affects education policies and their implications on student outcomes and educational opportunities.

Saloni Pareek Malik
Advisor: Jason Kaufman
First Reader: Amanda Teo

Abstract

This paper examines the impact of globalization on education. It investigates how globalization affects education policies and their implications on student outcomes and educational opportunities.

Kareen Mersha
Advisor: Mary Jo D. Good
First Reader: Stephanie A. Howling

Abstract

This paper examines the impact of globalization on education. It investigates how globalization affects education policies and their implications on student outcomes and educational opportunities.

Ashley Marie Pletz
Advisor: Nathan Fosse
First Reader: Jocelyn Viterna

Abstract

This paper examines the impact of globalization on education. It investigates how globalization affects education policies and their implications on student outcomes and educational opportunities.

Michelle Anne Steward
Advisor: Michele Lamont
First Reader: Stacey Bolsick

Abstract

This thesis focuses on the role of globalization in the context of international trade. It examines how globalization influences the distribution of wealth and the implications of these changes on economic policies and global competitiveness.

NOT IN MY FRONT YARD: The Struggle Against Neighboring Aggression in the Construction of Moral Boundaries