

Davis Center for Russian & Eurasian Studies

Internships at Central Bank of the Republic of Armenia

Agency:	Central Bank of the Republic of Armenia, Dilijan Research Centre
Title:	Research Intern
Topics (subject to further discussion):	• New dimensions and potential of Customs Union with regard to its possible extension (India, Vietnam, China) • New age of EU-Armenia relationships and current controversies • Interrelation between EU and Customs Union • Effects of WTO trade rules on Customs Union after its possible accession to the WTO • New dimensions of EU Eastern partnership in the region
General responsibilities	• Research on defined projects • Preparation and submission of research report • Organization of seminars/group discussions
Background	Graduate and undergraduate students
Language skills:	Knowledge of Russian language is preferable
Payment	Unpaid, but accommodation and some meals provided
Venue:	Dilijan, Armenia, a resort town outside Yerevan that the Armenian government is developing into a financial center.
Period:	4-8 weeks (Summer 2014, preferably June-July)
Equipment:	Working space, work station and internet
Accommodation:	Provided by the Central Bank
Meals:	Breakfast and lunch will be provided free of charge on working days
Travel expenses:	To be covered by interns. Central Bank will organize round-trip ground transportation from Yerevan Airport to Dilijan.

Contact: Donna Griesenbeck, griesenb@fas.harvard.edu